

There could be a fire in the kitchen.

If there is a fire in the kitchen, first I should stay calm, and let my elder know if I have an elder at home.

If there is a fire in the kitchen, I have to turn off the stove if I can.

I find a towel or cloth and wet it, and wring it out.

I should cover the wet towel over the burning pot or pan.

When there is a fire in the kitchen, turning off the stove and covering it with a wet towel is a very important behavior for my safety.
